

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Master's Degree

Part-time Lecturer

Glasgow Caledonian New York College

At Glasgow Caledonian New York College (GCNYC), New York City's College for the Common Good, we believe innovative business leaders are the vanguard of positive social change. Our Master of Science degrees explore social impact and sustainability, alongside opportunities to conduct applied research in business and fashion. Offered through evening courses on campus or online, our master's programs focus on driving sustainability-related innovation to accelerate systemic change.

Academics and Applied Research

GCNYC delivers unique Master of Science degrees which can be completed in one year full-time or 16 months part-time at our campus in SoHo in Manhattan as well as online. Our sustainable impact focus is inspired by leading-edge systems thinking grounded in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

The Calling for the M.S. in Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Leadership

GCNYC seeks a part-time Lecturer to assist in the launch of a new M.S. degree focused on preparing graduates to successfully lead initiatives in diversity, equity, and inclusion in the corporate and NGO setting, domestically and abroad.

Working with a subject-matter specialist Program Designer, GCNYC is apply to the New York State Education Department for approval of the new M.S. program in spring. Hiring is contingent upon NYSED approval, expected in May or June 2022.

GCNYC's model of a practitioner and activist professoriate who teach on a part-time basis to bring the cutting edge of practice into the classroom positions the school to launch a high-quality, high standards DEI M.S. degree.

Lecturer Description

The part-time Lecturer will play a collaborative role in the launch of the M.S. in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Leadership, working with the Program Director and one other part-time Lecturer.

Pending NYSED approval of the new program, this part-time engagement will begin July 1 and run through December 31, 2022.

The part-time Lecturer can work and teach remotely.

Responsibilities

- Develop a hybrid (online and in person) course design for two courses in the program.
- Review and strengthen drafted syllabi for the program.
- Introduce the College to prospective industry partners and potential donors.
- Assist in the recruitment of candidates for part-time lecturers to teach in the program.
- Advise the College on DEI initiatives.
- Assist in recruitment activities for the program by speaking with prospective students, speaking in a promotional video, and acting on admissions files.

Qualifications

The consultant should have a master's or doctorate degree and relevant research and/or practice experience.

Compensation

Compensation for this part-time six-month engagement is approved at between $7,500 and $10,000 depending on credentials and prior experience.

To apply, please send an email of interest and a resume or curriculum vitae to jacqueline.leblanc@gcu.ac.uk.

