

Call for Part-time Lecturer and Thesis Advisor Applications Glasgow Caledonian New York College

At Glasgow Caledonian New York College (GCNYC), New York City’s College for the Common Good, we believe innovative business leaders are the vanguard of positive social change. Our Master of Science degrees explore social impact and sustainability, alongside opportunities to conduct applied research in business and fashion. Offered through evening courses on campus or online, our master’s programs focus on driving sustainability-related innovation to accelerate systemic change.

Calling for Professionals at the Cutting Edge of Practice

We are looking for business and policy professionals committed to social innovation and sustainability to join GCNYC’s New York-based, practitioner and activist professoriate pool to bring the cutting edge of practice into the classroom.

Academics and Applied Research

GCNYC delivers unique Master of Science degrees which can be completed in one year full-time or two-years part-time at our campus in SoHo in Manhattan or remotely. Our sustainable impact focus is inspired by leading-edge systems thinking grounded in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

The GCNYC M.S. Curriculum Structure

As GCNYC grows, we are looking to qualify additional part-time lecturers for all courses in the Sustainable Fashion and Business for Social Impact and Sustainability M.S. degrees (see table). In addition, GCNYC is looking to qualify thesis advisors.

Shared Curriculum	Sustainable Fashion	Business for Social Impact & Sustainability
Values-Based Leadership for an Interconnected World	Fashion as Culture / Culture as Fashion	Money as a Force for Social Good
Navigating Global Change: Business Practices for The Common Good	Sustainability in Practice: Materials & People	Impact through Social Entrepreneurship
Business Strategy for the Common Good	Fashion Practicum (1.5)	Economics Concepts and Policy (1.5)
Introduction to Quantitative Analysis	Sustainable Fashion Strategy	The Chief Sustainability Officer
Sustainability Policy & Metrics

Research Methods
Thesis Advisors

GCNYC is currently revising its degrees from a 4-credit per course structure to a 3-credit per course structure, and all courses above are 3-credits unless otherwise noted. A list of past student thesis topics is available upon request.

Qualifications

Instructors should have a master’s or doctorate degree and relevant practice or research experience. Significant prior professional experience presenting your ideas and leading discussion groups is required; prior university teaching experience (including online) is helpful though not required.

Compensation

Master’s degree	Per 3-credit course	$7,500
Doctoral degree	Per 3-credit course	$10,000
Master’s degree	Per 1.5-credit course	$3,750
Doctoral degree	Per 1.5-credit course	$5,000
Thesis advising	Per advisee	$2,000

To apply, please send a cover letter, addressed to Vice President and Provost Jacqueline LeBlanc, resume or curriculum vitae to accounts@gcnyc.com. Please address which course(s) you are interested in teaching and what prepares you to do so successfully at GCNYC.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis with the first round of interviews to be scheduled the first week of April. Applications will be accepted until the search is taken down from the website.

GCNYC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The College is committed to providing an inclusive and respectful environment for all members of its community.

